DEDICATION

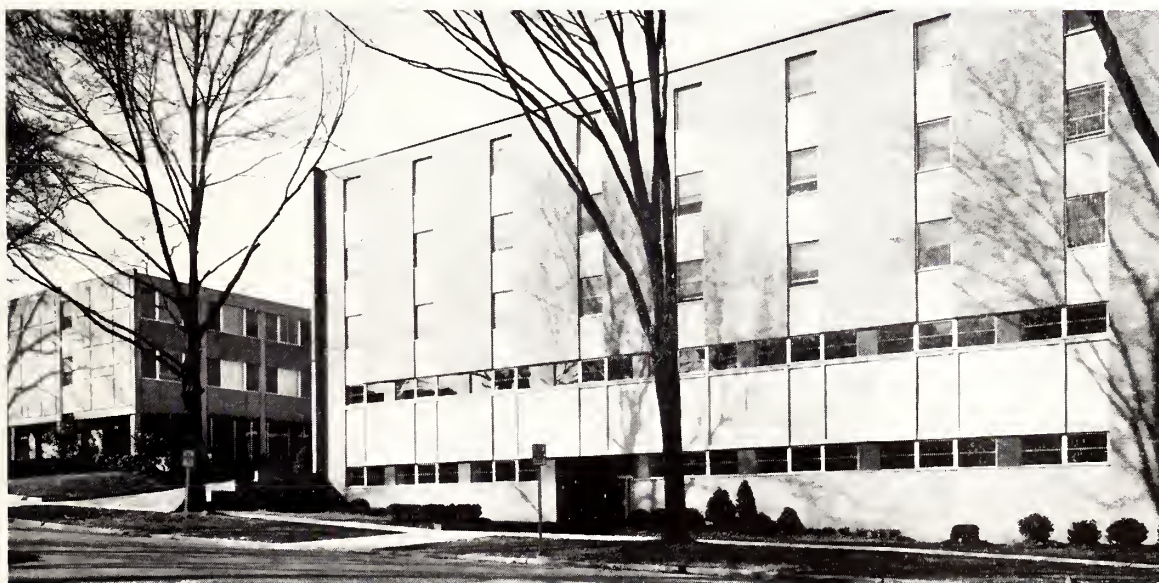

Many factors are important to a college, some are tangible and some are intangible. A college, like an individual, must grow. In so doing, it encompasses all phases of life—the spiritual, the mental, the physical and the cultural. Progress then becomes the primary factor in a successful existence. The only alternative is to regress, to stagnate, to lose sight of the greater fields of endeavor and accomplishment.

The students, the teachers, the friends and alumni of King's have watched with amazement these past few years as this college plunged wholeheartedly into an expansion program which is still very much under way. This program has brought the addition of a new educational building, two dormitories for girls, a dormitory for boys, and the newest addition, Barnett Hall, a combination educational and dormitory facility.

While we have progressed in these tangible things, we have also progressed in the intangible. Through the years many have labored long and patiently to raise the standards of instruction to provide the best and most modern business education available.

Thus, here at King's, progress, the force which encourages us to strive ever onward academically, encourages us to achieve greater strength and expansion. We are indebted to progress for the education it is giving us, but we also look forward proudly to what it will give those who are yet to come. So, to the future greatness of King's, we hereby dedicate the 1963 Kastle to an idea and an ideal—to Progress.

From the past

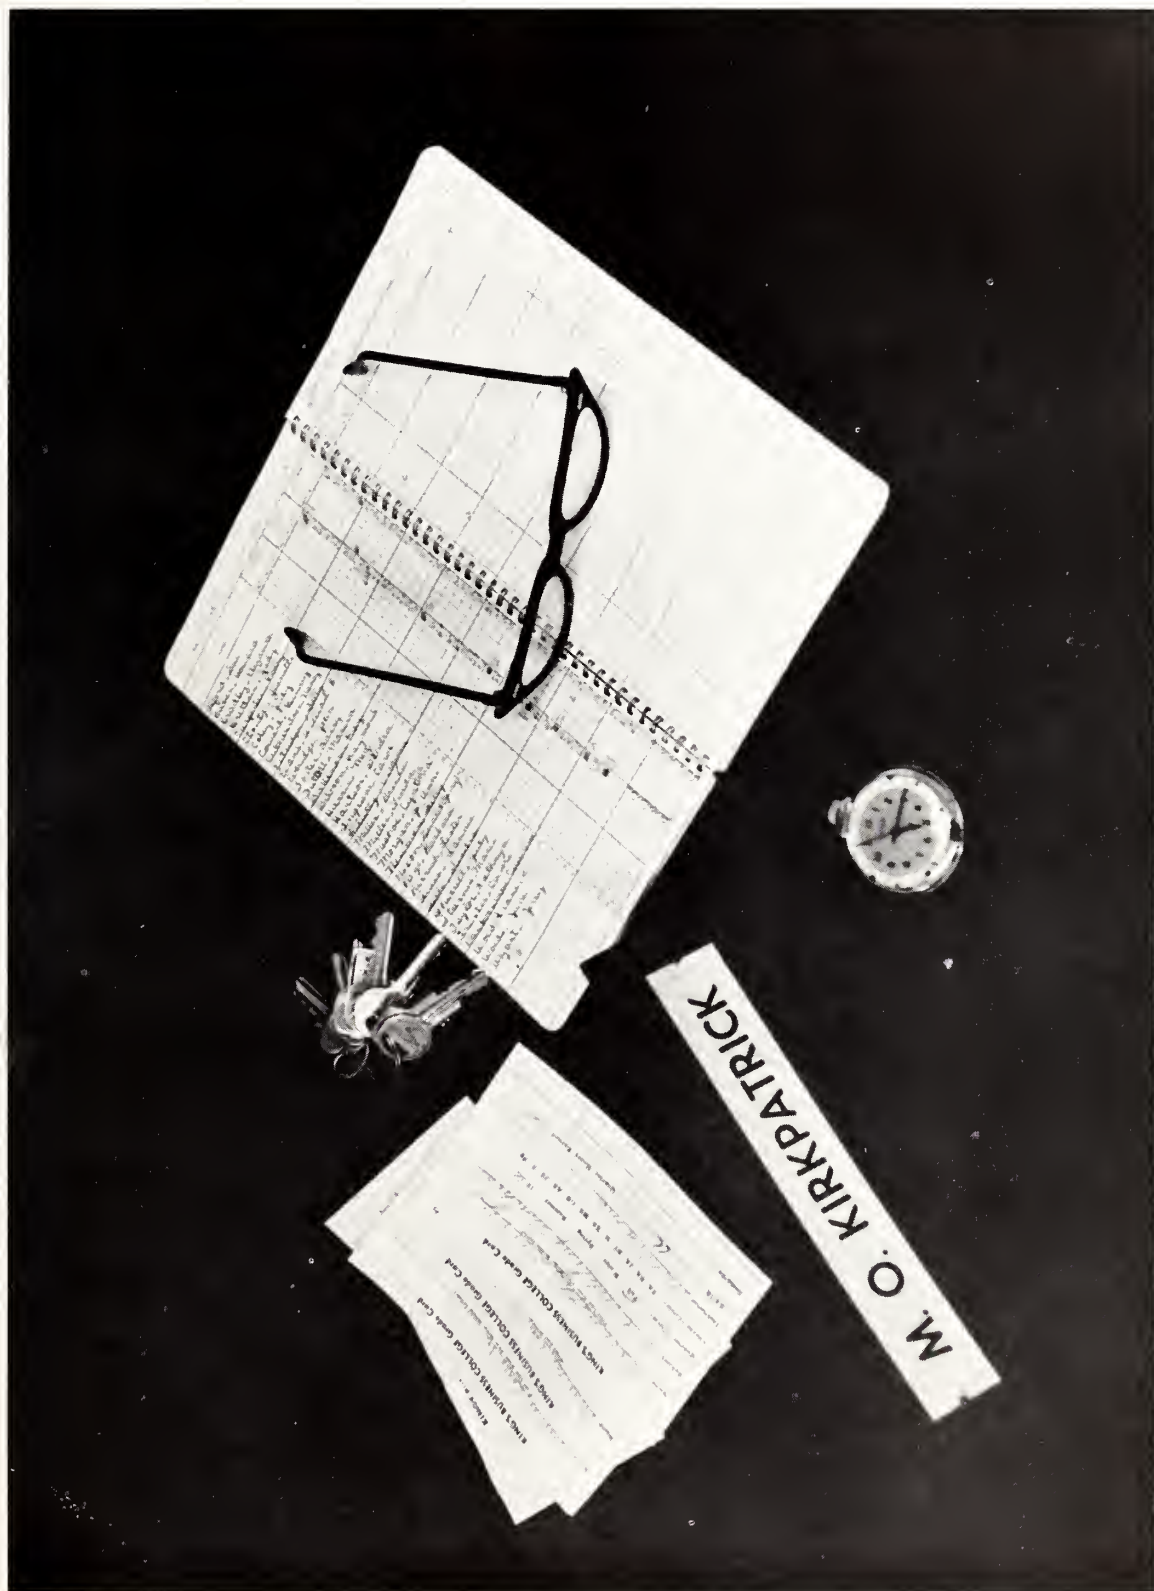

. to the present.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Kirkpatrick, Sr.

The faculty and administration are aware that the success of King's College is dependent upon you as individual members of the student body. Without your cooperation and support the College would be unable to offer the various courses of study, nor would we be able to sponsor the many extra-curricular activities available to you. We are most grateful for your contributions as King's students.

It is hoped that you will cherish this Yearbook in the years to come and that it will bring back fond memories of your association with fellow students, faculty, and members of the administrative staff. I wish you every success as you set forth in the business world and hope that you will always return to the College whenever we might be of assistance to you.

In Memoriam

JERRY HERBERT BOLICK
May 19, 1962

GRADUATION

Mr. Phillips inspired the graduates of 1962 with humorous and witty philosophy.

Already on the stairway to success—the marshals and ushers of 1962.

Our marshals of 1962 lent dignity to the already impressive graduation.

1962

If it's beauty you want, there are always the girls at graduation.

1962 Honor Graduates.

Mrs. Eudora Garrison receives the ninth Honorary Diploma from M. O. Kirkpatrick, Sr.

Nancy Byers receives a kind word from Mrs. Newton.

Why is everyone so eager to be in one of Mrs. White's classes?

There is always someone coming or going through this door.

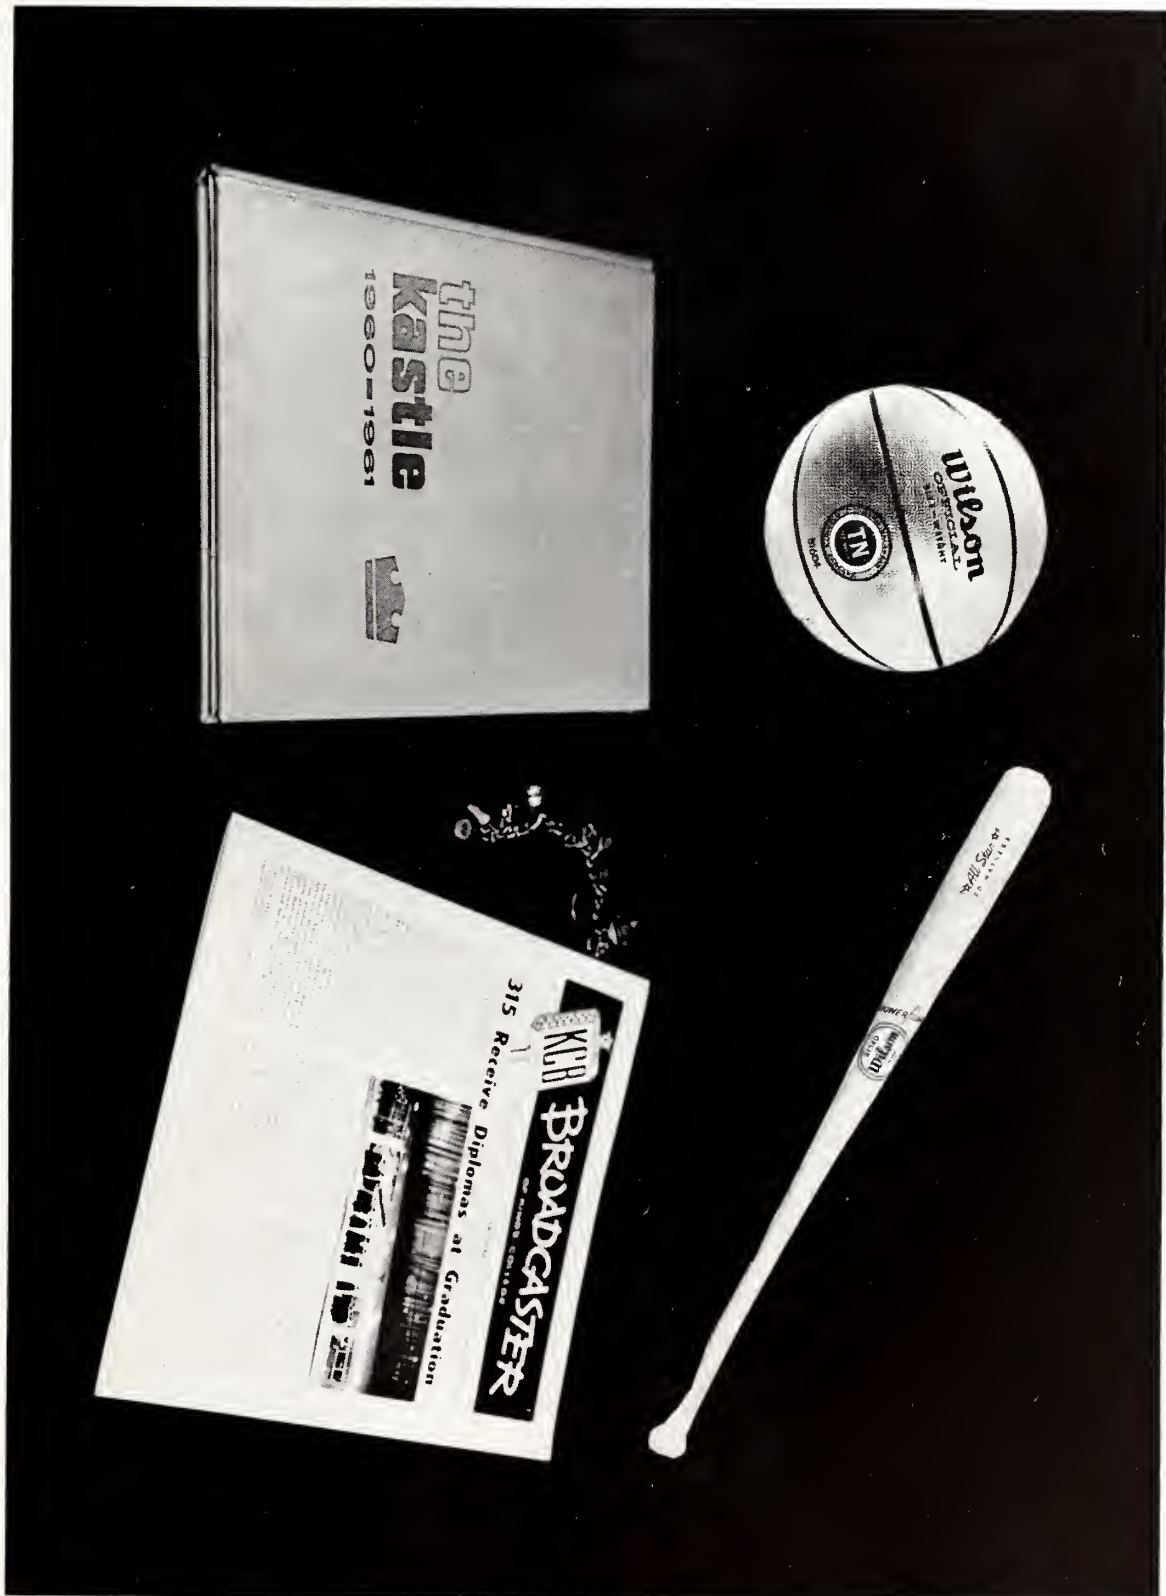

"The girl with the eyes!"

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

THIS is Mr. Rowland's accounting class!

Just to get my hands on the genius (?) who invented these things!

A good time was had by all!

A good example of Mrs. Libby Stone's excellent instruction in etiquette and charm is Dawn Church.

Mass confusion in the canteen at college break.

ALPHA DELTA

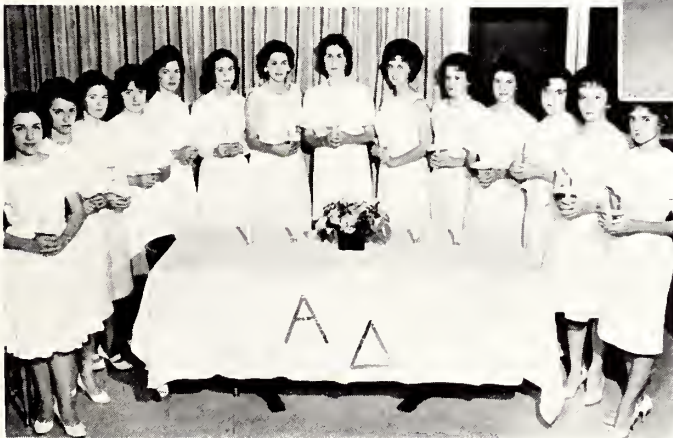

SORORITY

DEAR FAMILY,

Today I was initiated into Alpha Delta Sorority. You know how much I have always wanted to be an Alpha Delta, and now my dream has come true.

But, oh, tonight at the formal initiation everything was just beautiful. All of us "sisters" were dressed in white dresses.

We all dressed in Halloween costumes, carried our books in a Trick or Treat bag, and used a Jack-O-Lantern for a hand bag. It wouldn't have been so bad except that we had Blue Waltz Perfume from head to toe!

Judie Stegall, our president, was in charge of the program, and Mr. M. O. Kirkpatrick, Sr., was guest speaker. Several of the members explained to us the purposes of this honorary sorority.

Oh, yes, the group along with our sponsor, Mrs. Vera Moore, is already planning for the annual beach trip this summer.

I must close and study for a psychology test. See you this weekend.

LOVE, NANCY
